About the School

At London Business School, we strive to have a profound impact on the way the world does business and the way business impacts the world. Our departments work hard to ensure that we are continually delivering a world-class service, academic excellence and that our course offering maintains our place as a leading business school.

With thought-leading faculty and dynamic learning solutions, we empower both businesses and individuals by offering a transformational learning experience that will broaden their professional knowledge and global mindset. As well as offering postgraduate courses for the business leaders of the future, we run open and customised executive courses for professionals and corporate clients that help leaders identify the future focus and strategic direction of their businesses.

With London in our hearts, we draw from its status as a financial, entrepreneurial and cultural hub to attract a diverse range of students and faculty, creating an abundance of opportunities to network with industry experts and alumni worldwide.

About the Department

Executive Education designs and delivers world-class management and leadership development programmes including a portfolio of over 30 open enrolment programmes for individuals, and customised programmes for global client organisations. Executive Education accounts for significant proportion of the School's total revenue and is an essential part of the School's mission to have a profound impact on the way the world does business and the way business impacts the world.

Job Purpose

The Senior Account Manager role is a central commercial Project Manager role within Executive Education.

Senior Account Managers take the lead on managing day-to-day client relationships either independently or in partnership with Client Directors.

On large clients, the Senior Account Manager assumes a key project management role, working with a Client Director and Design team in Learning Solutions, to translate business won into a well-planned and designed and managed project that will be logistically delivered by a Programme Manager. The Senior Account Manager is accountable for keeping all client and project stakeholders informed and on track.

All new and returning business will be assigned to a Senior Account Manager to oversee and ensure seamless delivery; from finalising contract terms and liaising with key internal and external stakeholders, to managing budgets and revenue streams and delivering exceptional learning experiences.

With smaller clients, the Senior Account Manager will project manage and lead on the relationship management, and commercials with regards to repeat business, with the opportunity to win/grow business depending on portfolio.
